

1 Functions and Limits

1.1 Exercise Solutions

1. If $f(x) = x + \sqrt{2-x}$ and $g(u) = u + \sqrt{2-u}$, then it is true that $f = g$. The symbols used when representing a function algebraically can be chosen more or less freely.