

1 Functions and Limits

1.1 Exercise Solutions

1. If  $f(x) = x + \sqrt{2-x}$  and  $g(u) = u + \sqrt{2-u}$ , then it is true that  $f = g$ . The symbols used when representing a function algebraically can be chosen more or less freely.